Disclaimer! Winemakers change their recipes from wine to wine and year to year. Wine that is vegetarian one year may not be the next. The information here is accurate as far as is known, but there are no guarantees that all the wines listed here are suitable for vegetarians or vegans. Where no vintage is specified, the current wine at the time of writing is believed suitable.

Vegan & Vegetarian Pocket Guide to Wine

What is vegetarian wine?

Most wines are made using isinglass, a form of gelatine derived from fish so are unsuitable for vegetarians or vegans.

Where can I get vegetarian wine?

This guide provides a list of wines that are believed to be suitable for both vegetarians and vegans, most of which are available in off licences and supermarkets in Ireland.

For full details and for answers to frequently asked questions, see the Vegan and Vegetarian Wine Guide on the web at:
